TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF AUCTION SALE

1. Competent authority on whose behalf the auction sale will be conducted will appoint a Committee which will supervise the auction sale and will give decisions in the matter on the spot. The “Committee’s” decision will be final.
2. Full payment shall be paid on the spot on the fall of hammer.
3. If, on the fall of hammer, the highest bidder fails to pay full payment required, the bid shall forthwith be cancelled and the lot re-auctioned. The auctioneer, may be in consultation with the “committee” appointed by the competent authority for supervising the sale, refuse to accept the bid of any person without assignment any reasons whatsoever.
4. In the event of any dispute arising as to a bid’ the article will again be put up at the highest proceeding bid. The decision of the auctioneer shall be final to all intents and purpose.
5. The highest auction bid will be subject to the approval of the “Committee” appointed by the competent authority which will supervise the auction sale and had reserve to itself the right to accept or reject the highest bid without declaring any reasons whatsoever. Such decision will be given on the spot at the time of auction.
6. The “Committee” reserves the right to withdraw from the sale any lot or lots advertised for sale, without assigning any reason, or rearrange the lots, as desired even after, publishing the catalogue by the auctioneer.
7. The auction purchaser shall collect copy of the delivery order from the Competent Authority after making full payment.
8. Re-sale will not be recognized by the Competent Authority who will pass the document of sale in the name of the auction purchaser.
9. The buyer shall be responsible for any damage done to the premises in removing the goods bought by him.

10. It is to be clearly understood that items are to be taken as they stand at the time of the auction with all possible faults, breakages and errors of description, etc. All the goods are sold on the presumption that bidders have first inspected them or not and the principle of 'Caveat Emptor' will apply. No complaint will be entertained and no reliance must be placed on any description.
11. All dispute arising out of or in any way touching or concerning these conditions whatsoever will be referred to the Competent Authority whose decision shall be final and binding.
12. No exemption certificate will be given to the buyer in respect of any taxes, octroi or any other charges form the Competent Authority.
